THIS APP IS ABSOLUTELY AWESOME, but it'S missing something. We should be able to create avatars of different sizes. I want to make myself muscular. I want to add small children and babies. I know the time machine can make you look younger, but it doesn't allow you to make yourself a little kid. I WILL SWITCH TO 5 STAR AS SOON AS THIS IS ADDED! I would have rated five stars to begin with, but usually developers don't respond to five star review requests. This app is awesome, and keep it by NirmyWizard (Pcmac uses) Many people people complaints about everything is not free. But I understand that it's a must do so as not to go bankrupt. But pls not be EA or Activision. They basically charge you for everything. anyway, congratulations on having a great app. I really missed the old version, but you can improve this game by adding daily coins, and challenges to getting coins. But you can still charge them. Or give them free clothes if you play daily. Thanks, all in all an excellent app. This is sad Alania can luna linda (Pcmac user) I'm sorry, but the game is terrible. I used to love it. I am Chinese and I loved all the references and songs included in the animations. In 2015 I went to China and showed my family and they loved it. I redownloaded it and it's one of the worst apps I've ever downloaded. I know you guys had to make money, but I'd rather you just put more ads on the original game. You literally can't do anything without coins. I wish I could give it a better review. I also remember when more Americans started downloading it and it became super popular, so you guys switch to more Western animations they would understand. I get you need to please the people but I was super disappointed. Overall, I'm done with this game forever, thrown in the trash for me. Used to be 5 stars by Tigrilly (Pcmac user) The new updated version is just a big money grab. I updated my old version thinking they should add more fun stuff. Instead they deleted (which they did warn you about, but they deleted the entire original concept!) now charge you for all things that used to be free. They should have kept all the old stuff and just made you pay if you wanted more content (which I would have done because I liked the app so much) That's what the more honest way to go I think. I don't usually go through, but it was just so disappointing. I used to tell everyone about this app. Not anymore. Wish I never updated, ended up having to delete one of my favorite apps.
